El diseño de las piscinas ha cambiado con el tiempo. Hoy en día ponemos el mismo mimo que para decorar un salón o una cocina, porque es un espacio realmente especial. Hoy en día integramos las piscinas en jardines, coordinamos su diseño con la arquitectura y la estética general. Además, la piscina es un espacio vivo, transitado por nuestros hijos, familia y amigos.

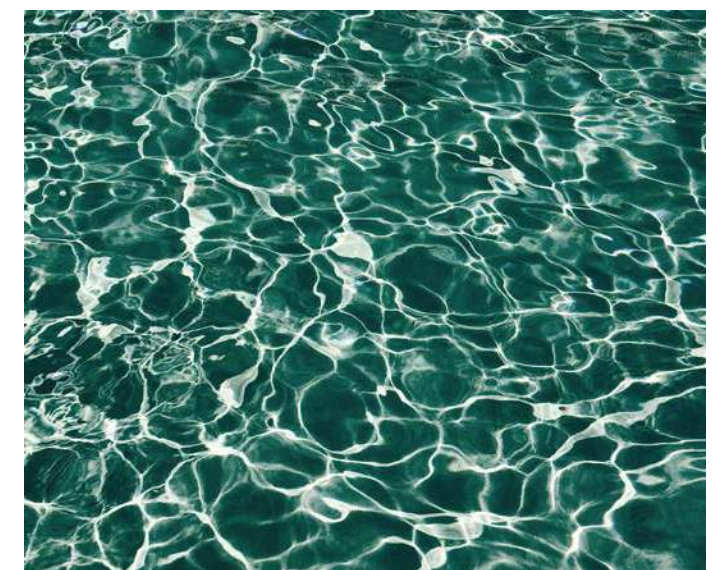

El agua ya no es un elemento aislado y estándar con la única función lúdica de refrescarnos en verano, sino que se ha convertido en un elemento decorativo más, capaz de generar una experiencia de jardín totalmente diferente.

The design of the pools has changed over time. Today we put the same care as to decorate a living room or kitchen, because it is a really special space. Today we integrate pools into gardens, we coordinate their design with architecture and general aesthetics. In addition, the pool is a living space, visited by our children, family and friends.

Water is no longer an isolated and standard element with the only playful function of cooling us down in summer, but it has become one more decorative element, capable of generating a totally different garden experience.

Utilizar tonos verdes en el mosaico de piscina logran un efecto increíble de piscina natural logrando un tono de agua natural relajante, que se aproximará más a verde si la piscina se encuentra rodeada de vegetación.

Green and natural tones in the pool mosaic achieve an incredible effect of a natural pool, achieving a relaxing natural water tone, which will be closer to green if the pool is surrounded by vegetation.

Si utilizamos tonos verdes el efecto será muy parecido al de los lagos naturales o estanques, puede ser una opción perfecta para piscinas situadas en jardines que buscan la unión con la naturaleza y donde priman los árboles, la madera y las rocas.

If we use green tones, the effect will be very similar to that of natural lakes or ponds, it can be a perfect option for pools located in gardens that seek union with nature and where trees, wood and rocks prevail.
